Last week you received, via United States Mail, a document entitled NOTICE OF PROTOCOL REGARDING CLAIMS OF OWNERSHIP OF NORTHWEST TERRITORIAL MINT COINING DIES AND ASSOCIATED MATERIALS AND DEADLINE TO ASSERT INTEREST IN OR OWNERSHIP OF COINING DIES informing you of the procedure for claiming an ownership interest in coining dies held by Northwest Territorial Mint. The document contained an inaccuracy at the end of the first full paragraph on the second page, which stated "NWTM die numbers begin with a numerical value, while MACO die numbers begin with a letter."

The sentence should have read, "NWTM die numbers begin with a letter, while MACO die numbers begin with a numerical value (year)." A corrected notice is attached to this email.

Hi Parvathy,

I have received your email requesting die ownership to be transferred from Northwest Territorial Mint to Petersen Products. I have found the die numbers for your coin and would be happy to process this request. The court has determined that NWTMINT retained ownership of all NWTMINT dies created to produce coins, medallions or other products for customers. The court has approved a fee for the ownership transfer in the amount of $300.00 per die.

Your die numbers are,
N 1 25
N 1 26

At this time we are not an operating mint and would not be able to produce anymore coins for you. Medalcraft Mint is a vendor that has equipment that is compatible with your dies. They would be able to produce new coins for you.

I am available by phone, 775-461-7341, if you would like to make a payment using a debit/credit card, or you can send a check to the following address. Dies will be pulled and shipped once payment has been received.

Hi Jenifer,

I got a communication saying that we should be writing to this e mail address reg. claims of ownership of NWTM coining dies. We made the following coin last year and were planning to place additional orders. I did not fully understand the communication. Does this mean that you will give us the original dies and we will not be able to place any more orders? How do we make more coins if we need them? Can you please explain how this works?

I am attaching the form you asked me to fill from your website. Appreciate it very much if you can explain how all this works. Thank you.

Can you please advise me as to the procedure for claiming dies, galvanos, etc. for an issue that was produced originally by Medallic Art Co.

I believe the Claim form addresses only items produced by NWTM.

I appreciate any information in what I must do at this time, for 2 issues that were commissioned by my late grandfather in (1967), and later by myself (1983).

Hi Jenifer,

Silver State Stainless received the Notice of Protocol regarding claims of Ownership of Northwest Territorial Mint Coining Dies. While reading the notice there was a section that states "It is important to note that this Notice only relates to dies manufactured by Northwest Territorial Mint. Dies manufactured by the Medallic Art Company ("MACO"), a separate division of NWTM are not subject to this notice." The part that the MACO division is not subject to this notice concerns us. We did pay for our Custom 39mm Obverse Coining Die – Part number: M 2 59. We would like to take ownership of our die and we are not sure who we need to contact to obtain ownership.

Thank you for your help.

As far as Medalcrafts quality of work, I have not personally been to their location or seen there minted coins. I have been told that the quality is similar to what Northwest Territorial Mint offers. I would recommend contacting Medalcraft Mint and requesting a physical sample of the piece.

Subject: NWTM/MACO Dies in Invoice #527762

Ms. Baker,

Please find attached a scan of Invoice #527762, dated 2/19/14, for the contract which produced dies H2675 and H2676.

Following our recent phone conversation, I ask the following questions:

1. To which Firm/Division should these dies be attributed: MACO or NWTM? I am aware that you all were co-located at the time; and generally MACO produced medallions of this 65mm size; and the salesman with whom I worked (Gene Frink) referred certain aspects of the order to the MACO Division. But the die numbering seems to indicate NWTM.
2. Where are these dies physically stored? How about the sculptures and artwork? Where would they remain, if not sent to me?
3. MACO has an exceptional reputation. MedalCraft Mint in Wisconsin says it has purchased some of MACO's presses; and would be able to execute a similar order in the future. Would you say the quality would be similar?
4. Which MACO/NWTM artist can be credited with this work? Moritz Furst was the famous US Mint engraver who executed the original obverse bust in 1819. In those days, the engraver's name was included in the strike. I understand the neither the US Mint nor you can do that now. But my correspondence with Frink indicates that one of your artisans accepted my challenge to include important details in the reverse of my order; and the resulting changes are stunning even at 10x! The name of that person needs to be preserved.

I look forward to your answers and how I should respond to Trustee Mark Calvert's June 21st, 2018 deadline for claiming dies.

Sincerely,

OHPerry Cabot

I have received your email requesting die ownership to be transferred from Northwest Territorial Mint to Petersen Products. I have found the die numbers for your coin and would be happy to process this request. The court has determined that NWTMINT retained ownership of all NWTMINT dies created to produce coins, medallions or other products for customers. The court has approved a fee for the ownership transfer in the amount of $300.00 per die.
